

The Jesus child in manger lay

(Barn Jesus i en krybbe lå)

Text: Hans Christian Andersen
English version: © 2006 Francis L. Lynch

Music: Niels W. Gade (1817-1890)

S
The Je - sus child in man - ger lay Though heav'n his right - ful sta - tion. His
Be glad, all souls who were for-lorn: Shake off your heav - y sor - row; A

A
The Je - sus child in man - ger lay Though heav'n his right - ful sta - tion. His
Be glad, all souls who were for-lorn: Shake off your heav - y sor - row; A

T
The Je - sus child in man - ger lay Though heav'n his right - ful sta - tion. His
Be glad, all souls who were for - lorn: Shake off your heav - y sor - row; A

B
The Je - sus child in man - ger lay Though heav'n his right - ful sta - tion. His
Be glad, all souls who were for - lorn: Shake off your heav - y sor - row; A p (for rehearsal only)

5
S pil - low here was straw and hay In dark - ness and pri - va - tion. But child in Da - vid's ci - ty born Shall com - fort you to - mor - row. The

A
pil - low here was straw and hay In dark - ness and pri - va - tion. But child in Da - vid's ci - ty born Shall com - fort you to - mor - row. The

T pil - low here was straw and hay In dark - ness and pri - va - tion. But child in Da - vid's ci - ty born Shall com - fort you to - mor - row. The

B pil - low here was straw and hay In dark - ness and pri - va - tion. But child in Da - vid's ci - ty born Shall com - fort you to - mor - row. The

mf