

The Love of God

Francis L. Lynch

Carl Nielsen

(♩ = c. 72) may be sung in unison or harmony, with or without accompaniment

Soprano

1. The breath of God brings life to all, And ur - ges all our prayers; Its voice of God calls ev - ery - one To new lives filled with grace. With - love of God seeks ev - ery heart To lead it to love's source; We

Alto

Tenor

1. The breath of God brings life to all, And ur - ges all our prayers; Its voice of God calls ev - ery - one To new lives filled with grace. With - love of God seeks ev - ery heart To lead it to love's source; We

Bass

Piano or Organ
(optional)

5

S

warmth en - folds both great and small And ea - ses all our cares. In wind and storm we in our hearts the e - choes run And fill an emp - ty space. We hear it in the turn a - way, but can - not part From its re - lent - less force. Be - yond the reach of warmth en - folds both great and small And ea - ses all our cares. In wind and storm we in our hearts the e - choes run And fill an emp - ty space. We hear it in the turn a - way, but can - not part From its re - lent - less force. Be - yond the reach of

A

T

8

B

5