

My heart must always wander

Text: H.A. Brorson

English version: © 2006 Francis L. Lynch

(Mit hjerte altid vanker)

Music: Carl Nielsen (1865-1931)

S

My heart must al - ways wan - der The way that Je - sus trod: There
 But oh, my heart is weep - ing When think I on that scene: The
 In safe - ty does she peek out: The spar - row from her nest; Nor
 My heart and soul I'm try - ing, Oh Lord, to o - pen wide; A

A

My heart must al - ways wan - der The way that Je - sus trod: There
 But oh, my heart is weep - ing When think I on that scene: The
 In safe - ty does she peek out: The spar - row from her nest; Nor
 My heart and soul I'm try - ing, Oh Lord, to o - pen wide; A

T

My heart must al - ways wan - der The way that Je - sus trod: There
 But oh, my heart is weep - ing When think I on that scene: The
 In safe - ty does she peek out: The spar - row from her nest; Nor
 My heart and soul I'm try - ing, Oh Lord, to o - pen wide; A

B

(for rehearsal only)

5

S

all that I do pon - der Is cen - tered on our God; There God of heav - en sleep - ing In sta - ble low and mean; That need the swal - low seek out A place of night - ly rest; While thou - sand sighs I'm sigh - ing: Oh Je - sus, come in - side! No

A

all that I do pon - der Is cen - tered on our God; There God of heav - en sleep - ing In sta - ble low and mean; That need the swal - low seek out A place of night - ly rest; While thou - sand sighs I'm sigh - ing: Oh Je - sus, come in - side! No

T

all that I do pon - der Is cen - tered on our God; There God of heav - en sleep - ing In sta - ble low and mean; That need the swal - low seek out A place of night - ly rest; While thou - sand sighs I'm sigh - ing: Oh Je - sus, come in - side! No

B

5